03 THE IMPACT

Repeatable NIL Funding

Converts one-off sponsorships into sustained recurring capital to recruit, support, and retain championship student-athletes.

"Our goal is simple: Help Red Rocks win more sponsor dollars, retain those sponsors, and create stronger NIL opportunities that help attract and retain elite athletes."

THE BUSINESS CHALLENGE

Red Rocks Needs More Recurring NIL Funding to Compete for Championships

01

Recruiting Beyond History

Elite athletes evaluate more than team history and fan culture when choosing where to compete.

02

Impact on Roster

NIL funding directly affects recruiting, roster retention, and long-term student-athlete opportunity.

03

Championship Goal

Goal is to grow NIL funding so Red Rocks can attract the talent needed to win another national championship.

04

Repeatable System Needed

Red Rocks has athlete stories and fan energy, but needs a repeatable sponsor-revenue system to scale.

THE CORE REALITY: The problem is not a lack of stories or fans. It is a lack of a scalable way to turn them into sponsor revenue.

WHY SPONSORS ARE THE GROWTH OPPORTUNITY

Sponsors Can Create Recurring NIL Revenue When Value Is Clear.

01

Confidence

"Which athlete and campaign best fit the brand?"

Brands need alignment and certainty before committing capital—identifying the right student-athlete voice and campaign format.

02

Easy Activation

"What content and offer will the sponsor receive?"

Sponsors want turnkey execution without friction—clear deliverables, production workflows, and defined promotional assets.

03

Measurable Results

"Did the campaign create reach, engagement, or action?"

Partners require tangible proof of return—real-time reporting across audience reach, fan engagement, and customer conversions.

HOW MAKE THE LANDING DELIVERS:

"Make the Landing gives sponsors a simple answer to all three questions before they invest."
